			Other Activity Asserted: 250000 - I experienced bizarre order fills in my time trading on FTX where I would get stopped out after FTX hitting my sell limit despite it being way outside of that days trading range. At the time, I assumed it was a function of the nascent industry, but in hindsight, I am sure it was a siphoning scheme to their other entities Alameda, etc. where they would take the other side of that trade. I was trading pretty large volumes, and it is hard to calculate the exact impact but I am estimating damages of $250k.			0.000000000000000
